STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Under the existing law the Deputy Commissioner has, under Section 185 of the Land Revenue Code, 1888, power to cancel a sale even without an application by a party or on grounds not put forward in an application, if he shall have reason to think that the sale ought to be set aside. In some of such cases, interest is ordered to be paid to the purchaser to recoup him for the cancellation of the sale. As there is no express provision of law to allow the imposing of such conditions, it has been doubted whether the practice is legal.

It is considered expedient that the practice should be expressly recognised and thereby amending the provisions of the Code.

Statement of Objects and Reasons

Under the existing law the Deputy Commissioner is ~~authorised under section 185 of the Mysore Land Revenue code, 1888, to cancel on equitable grounds, a sale for arrears of revenue~~ but there is no ^{express} provision authorising him to ^{order} ~~offer~~ as a condition of cancellation the payment by the party benefitted to the auction purchaser of interest on the amount deposited by him or other reasonable compensation. But the practice of awarding such compensation has been in vogue and the object of this Bill is to legalise this practice by suitable amendment of sec: 185 of the Mysore Land Revenue code has under S. 185 of the L.R Code 1888, power to Cancel a sale even without an application by a party or on grounds not put forward in an appⁿ, if he shall have reason to think that the sale ought to be set aside. In ^{some of} such cases, it has ~~been usual~~ interest is ordered to be paid to the purchaser to recoup him for the ~~loss of~~ cancellation of the sale. As there is no express provⁿ of law to allow the imposing of such cond^{ns}, it has been doubted whether the practice is legal. It is considered expedient that the practice ~~is~~ should be ~~res~~ expressly recognised by insertion in the Code, and hence the amendment is proposed.

Please refer to Mr. Narasinga Rao's letter No. 285 Pol., dated the 8th September 1915, In the copies of the Bill to amend the Mysore Land Revenue Code, which are returned herewith, the words "either wholly or in part" which the Select Committee desired to add to the amendment of Section 181 are placed in the first line. They should apparently come in the 3rd line.

There is a further Bill to ~~the~~ amend the Land Revenue Code still pending - vide my d.o. letter No. 607, dated the 26th August 1915. It would be more convenient to send up one Bill of all pending amendments to the Government of India, but perhaps this is not now possible.

Yours Sincerely
 M. B. Wadhwa

Sir M. Visvesvaraya, K.C.I.E.,
 Dewan of Mysore.

A Bill further to amend the Mysore Land Revenue Code, 1888.
